MILLERS MAKES BETTER RECORD

TOWN HAS NOT GOT THROUGH WITH SUBSCRIBING TO THE LIBERTY LOAN

Millers, not satisfied with what had been accomplished in the first stages of the Liberty Loan canvass is still going ahead with additions. This morning the committee reported a total of $15,000, which probably establishes a record for any town of 210 population. The new names turned in by the Millers committee are as follows:

G. Mijuskovich, J. M. McDama, Dora Wark, L. A. Kvello, Samuel Westhorpe, Wm. A. Jeannison, Mrs. F. H. Hillard, Andrew Guthrie Torrance, E. R. Trevithick, Richard L. Corum, Bertram H. Ingalls, Austin E. Stevens, Walter A. Schmutz, Leon C. Fox, Geo. R. Hickernell, Helen E. Hickernell, Jas. Morris, W. H. Royston, Wm. C. Royston.

Tonopah subscriptions not previously reported: Finlay J. Ong, Steve Sarzentich, Sam Sarzentich, E. C. Simpson, Edward Pliny Wilson, Mrs. Mary Harvey, Eliza L. Kind, Kathryn Hansford, Elizabeth A. Chase, Harry Keyes West, Miss Helene Dugan, James S. Wood, Edna Ledwich, Mrs. Ida J. North, Fred M. North, Mrs. Frances Johnston, Agnes Bell, Mrs. Ellen McNamara, J. R. Van Harlingen, Eleanor DeCoursey, Jno. H. Forbes, Roger Dougherty, Mrs. Roger Dougherty, Agnes D. Tanzey.

The local committee is surprised at the apathy of local business men who have not come forward as well as expected and a meeting of the executive committee was held this afternoon with the result that it was arranged to make a drive for the business men next Tuesday. The working classes have done their share, although there are some slackers but any one who has been overlooked is invited to call at either bank.

"CRISIS" AT BUTLER MONDAY, JUNE 11TH

"The Crisis," with special music and sound effects, will be presented at the Butler theater on Monday, one day only.

Although dealing with the civil war period, "The Crisis" follows a wholly different trend from "The Clansman." It is a picturization of Winston Churchill's novel of St. Louis in the dark and stormy period of the rebellion, and follows faithfully the rich, romantic plot of the Churchill story. Abraham Lincoln is an essential character in the unravelling of the tangled threads of romance that involve the northern hero and the southern heroine, and is not dragged into the play merely for the sake of historical background. History, indeed, is so closely woven with romance that it will take an expert student of the period to discover the line of demarcation.

Among the striking scenes of the play are a slave auction in St. Louis, where the hero and heroine first meet and clash; the Lincoln-Douglas debate, amidst torchlight processions and bonfires in the backwoods of Illinois; the fall of Ft. Sumter, with the Stars and Stripes going down for the first time before the cannonading of an internal foe; a meeting of Lincoln's cabinet to consider plans for saving the Union; and the battle of Vicksburg, fought in detail from both the land and the river. The thread of Churchill's romance runs through the entire play, and is never lost sight of, even in the smoke of battle. There will be one matinee and two night shows. It is a picture that is of great interest to all.—Adv.

RED CROSS COMMITTEE
All members of executive committee of Tonopah Chapter of American Red Cross are requested to meet at the office of the Southern Nevada Abstract Company at 4 p. m. Monday, June 11, 1917.

MRS. H. E. COOKE, Sec.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATRE

There will be a seven-reel program at the Butler this evening. Frances Nelson, one of the greatest of emotional stars, will appear in a Metro production entitled "One of Many," a play that will appeal peculiarly to women, and presents a subject with which women have grappled since the dawn of civilization. On the screen is flashed the struggles, the sorrows, the regeneration of Shirley Bryson, the little manicure girl whose love for her mother blinds her eyes to her duty to herself. "One of Many," preaches in plain terms the doctrine that "those who sow must also reap." The national board of censors pronounced it a profound moral lesson and its entertainment and moral values were described as of unusual strength. In addition to this feature, a two-reel comedy, "That Dawgone Dog," will be presented, which will amuse everybody, and above all, the little folks, whom we always look after in arranging our programs.

Tomorrow, a double bill, Lou Tellegen, formerly leading man for Sarah Bernhardt, now the husband of Geraldine Farrar, in a Lasky production, "The Victoria Cross," which is the highest honor to which the English soldier may aspire. The second feature is Mollie King in "The Mystery of the Double Cross."

Monday, "The Crisis." One day only.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Today: Frank Keenan, in "The Crab," a five-reel Triangle release, with Thelma Salter, the most remarkable child actress appearing on the screen today, as a full-fledged star and Frank Keenan playing the role of her curmudgeon uncle, has to do with all that is to be found in the small American town. Keenan, last seen as a southern gentleman of the old school in "The Bride of Hate," has an entirely different kind of part in "The Crab," in which he appears as a harsh New Englander of Puritan stock. The play concerns his adoption of a little girl, enacted by Thelma Salter, and the change wrought in his life.

"The Road Agent," one of those Keystone comedies that all like. Bring the youngsters and be prepared to hate and love and laugh and cry with little Thelma Salter and Frank Keenan. Come and see what happens, and you will go home feeling better towards the whole world.

Tomorrow: Wilfred Lucas in "Jim Bludso," a Fine Arts feature drama in five parts. For this play a river steamer was purchased at a cost of $10,000 and it was destroyed by fire and explosion as a spectacular feature of this picture. "A Male Governess," another of those Keystone comedies. Monday, the Gladstone sisters and Chas. Fessie in a real show. Matinee and night. Four people.

FIRST CLEAN-UP REPORTED FOR THE CURRENT YEAR

A wire received by J. C. Robertson this morning from Louis Gordon, president of the Round Mountain Mining company, stated that the first clean-up of the placers for the season of 1917 yielded $52,000. This promises to be one of the best placering seasons experienced in Nye county, owing to the quantity of ice in the hills.

CABARET MINSTRELS COMING SOON

The Woman's Relief Corps has arranged with Harry Ennis to stage a two nights entertainment in the near future at the Airdome. Mr. Ennis staged a production here two years ago, which was very successful in every way.

The best musical and dramatic talent in the camp has been secured and this show promises to be the best ever staged in "The Old Reliable" for many years.

OLDEST FIRM IN TONOPAH RETIRING

Ryan & Stenson, the oldest dry goods firm of Tonopah, and one of the oldest in the state, is closing out in Tonopah and Virginia City. The date for the retirement is fixed for not later than the 15th of August. In the meantime every article will be marked down to less than factory prices. At the present time it must be understood that one of the greatest difficulties about merchandising is to secure delivery of first class goods so that a firm like Ryan & Stenson that carries a large stock is in a better position to offer bargains than could be secured today direct from factory or mill. Ryan & Stenson has always enjoyed the reputation for square dealing and their friends and customers will find everything claimed by the partners to be sustained by the truth.

BURIAL MRS. STEWART OCCURS TOMORROW

The funeral of the late Mrs. Chas. Stewart, will be held Sunday afternoon from the old home in Bridgeport, California. The death occurred at Minden, the railroad terminus, where the suffering lady had reached on her way home. The family was with her up to the moment of parting and she conversed with them and then sank into what appeared to be a placid slumber never to wake up.

The decedent was born Emma Leonard Wedertz, in San Francisco, November 25, 1854 and leaves a husband, C. M. Stewart, one son, J. Wesley Stewart, of Tonopah; two daughters, Mrs. A. M. Berryessa and Mrs. P. R. Parker, of Bridgeport. There also are four sisters, Mrs. L. C. Brandon, of Goldfield; Mrs. William Cargill, Smith Valley, Nevada; Mrs. J. W. Towle and Mrs. James Logan, of Bridgeport; three brothers, C. E. Wedertz and C. R. Wedertz, of Smith Valley and Frank L. Wedertz, of Bridgeport.

Wonderful Soda--

That's what they all say
—and why wouldn't they say it? It certainly is the most wonderful soda we have ever seen, and probably the very best soda that can be produced today. That is the reason. First, purity of ingredients, then careful manipulation, then a sanitary fountain and the cleanest and nearest service. That's what makes it good. That should appeal to you, and induce you to meet and treat at our fountain, now and for the balance of the summer. Any flavor you want, all the old-timers, and the newest ones.
